Come and See Them

W. G. McCAUSLAND

He was quite a formidable candidate before he commenced talking.

Does anyone know which candidate for governor the Anti-Saloon League is supporting? Since Hadley made monkeys of the members of the organization they seem to be a little shy on political credit.

Judge Lamm said in a recent speech that he had "been told" that the colony for the feeble minded at Marshall is running on borrowed money, and the penitentiary on credit. The Judge failed to state that he was running on the "faults of others" rather than on any business record of his own, and that his prospects had been blasted by the support of the Kansas City Star.

The German government proposes to protest with the International Red Cross against the use of the so-called "tanks" or caterpillar motor trucks, on the ground that the use of these new engines of war, is contrary to recognized methods of civilized warfare. After the introduction of poisonous gas Kultur locked the door to any impossible interference on the part of neutrals as to methods of procedure in the wholesale killing.

Will They Repeal It?

Will any Republican candidates for either branch of Congress pledge themselves to work for the repeal of the Admanson eight-hour law? Will Mr. Hughes recommend the Sixty-fifth Congress to repeal it, if he is elected?

Not by a long shot. The act will stand. It must be completed and reinforced by supplementary legislation such as Mr. Wilson recommends. In the White House, should he get there, Mr. Hughes can but try to carry out the policy against which he affects to be so ferocious. The latest issue he has picked up is like the rest of his issues, vanity and a striving after wind.—New York Times.

Athletics Pay Well at State University.

Athletic activities more than pay for themselves at the University of Missouri at Columbia, thereby not costing the state anything for the maintaining of teams, the buying of equipment and the incidental expenses incurred, according to the annual report of Chester L. Brewer, director of athletics at the University. Football showed a profit of $5,506.24 for the year; basketball $266.94 and baseball $213.34. In the last five years about $46,456.85 has been spent in permanently improving Rothwell Gymnasium, Rollins Field and adjoining grounds. Of this amount only $2,825 came from University funds appropriated by the State Legislature. Nearly all of the money comes from the sale of admission to the various athletic contests.

JOPLIN WOMAN TELLS OF CASE

"Tanlac Is Just Splendid," Mrs. N. L. Brooks Says—Feels Like New Person.

Joplin, Mo., Sept. 29—Tanlac is just splendid," Mrs. N. L. Brooks, well-known Joplin woman, who lives at 200½ Main street, this city, said recently.

"For a long time I suffered from rheumatism," Mrs. Brooks continued. "I was unable to attend to my household duties and I think I must have been a real burden to my friends and relatives. I didn't rest well at night and I felt tired all the time. My appetite was very poor. I was depressed in spirits.

"I was surprised at the results the very first bottle of Tanlac brought. I began to feel better every way soon after I started using the new medicine. I really feel like a new woman and I believe Tanlac has given me permanent relief."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is the ideal tonic for weak, run down men and women, building them up to health and strength. Tanlac is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, rheumatism, nervousness, loss of appetite and the like.

Tanlac is now being especially introduced and explained in Lexington at the Crenshaw & Young Drug Store.

U. S. Army Officer University Student.

Lieut Joseph C. King, United States army officer detailed as commandant at the University of Missouri at Columbia, has enrolled as a student in the School of Law of the University.

Lieutenant King is enthusiastic about the University.

"This is a great bunch of fellows you have here," he said. "They are so well set up that if they were all in uniform I would think I was at an army post." The lieutenant was recently in service on the Mexican border. He says that he hopes to maintain the same high standards of work in the University cadet corps during his stay at Missouri. The school is now ranked by the War Department among the ten best in the country.
